INTRODUCTION

This information booklet is designed to provide you with information about the services provided by Integral Skills and our approach to providing you a safe, fair and supported environment to participate in training and assessment. This handbook does not provide you with specific information about a particular course offered by Integral Skills. This information is contained in the Course Brochure which is supplied separately and available on our website <https://www.integralskills.com.au/> along with other relevant information.

ABOUT INTEGRAL SKILLS

Integral Skills is a Registered Training Organisation (Provider Number: 45528) providing high-quality training to learners in Australia. Integral Skills has modern, up to date facilities, and boasts a team of qualified and dedicated Trainers. You can find out more about Integral Skills at the following website:

<https://www.integralskills.com.au/>

Integral Skills is responsible under its registration with the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) for the quality of the training and assessment being delivered on your chosen course and is also responsible for the issuance of any AQF certificate that may result based on your achievement of the course requirements.

OUR SERVICES

Integral Skills provides a range of training and assessment services in support of nationally endorsed training products.

Integral Skills predominately specialise in the delivery of High Risk training for industry, either defined legislatively under High Risk Work Licensing (HRWL) requirements of High Risk by nature of activity (Safe Working at Heights, Work in Confined Spaces etc).

- Canes (Vehicle Mounted, Overhead, Non-Slew and Slew)
- Dogging
- Rigging (Basic and Intermediate)
- Scaffolding (Basic, Intermediate, Advanced)
- Forklift
- Elevated Work Platform
- Supervisor Courses

We can also deliver many other training activities and professional services including Verification of Competence Assessments, refreshers, onsite training heights and lifting equipment inspections. The best way to find out more is to jump on our website, have a look at our Capability Statement or give us a call.

OUR MISSION

At Integral Skills our mission is to deliver quality Training and Assessments that meets the needs of our clients and industry.

VISION

In recognition of this mission, our objectives are:

- To be top of mind and a professional training organisation.
- To have highly trained, motivated trainers from industry with real industry experience.
- To provide training to the industry leaders of tomorrow.
- To provide a welcoming, state of the art training facility.

VALUES

- Safety - For all staff & course participants to go home injury free, the same way they came to our premises.
- Integrity & Proficiency - Deliver quality training in a timely manner.
- Commerciality - Competitive pricing combined with effective marketing.
- Communication - Make it clear and make it understood.
- Happy - We enjoy what we do and do what we enjoy.
- Teamwork - Work together as one big team.

FINDING US

We are located at:

Orange Facility & Head Office:

Both towns being relatively small have numerous food outlets in and around the township which are only minutes away by vehicle.

OUR TRAINERS

Our Trainers & Assessors are qualified, dedicated professionals who have current industry experience and qualifications in a range of industries. Their industry experience is continually up to date by participating in professional development activities, therefore giving our learners the best practical, real world, industry experience.

At Integral Skills we deliver the majority of our training services via face-to-face instruction and in the workplace. When you study with Integral Skills, your Trainer & Assessor will be always there to assist you throughout your course. You can either attend a classroom training environment, or receive job visits and even phone or email your Trainer Assessor for advice which means you get the support you need when you need it.

Integral Skills Trainers & Assessors are all professionally qualified and have personal industry and job role experience. Our Trainer & Assessors deliver their training in a way that learners will enjoy.

OUR EXPECTATION OF YOU

Integral Skills expects you:

- To contribute to learning in a harmonious and positive manner irrespective of gender, race, sexual preference, political affiliation, marital status, disability or religious belief.
- To comply with and follow Integral Skills policies and procedures.

- To be honest and respectful, which includes not falsifying work or information and not conducting yourself in any way that may cause injury or offence to others.
- To be responsible for your own learning and development by participating actively and positively, ensuring that you maintain progress with learning modules.
- To monitor your own progress by ensuring that assessment deadlines are observed.
- To utilise facilities and Integral Skills publications with respect and to honour our copyrights and prevent our publication from being distributed to unauthorised persons.
- To respect other learners and Integral Skills, staff members and their right to privacy and confidentiality.

UNIQUE STUDENT IDENTIFIER

If you're studying nationally recognised training in Australia from 1 January 2015, you will be required to have a Unique Student Identifier (USI). Your USI links to an online account that contains all your training records and results (transcript) that you have completed from 1 January 2015 onwards. Your results from 2015 will be available in your USI account in 2016.

When applying for a job or enrolling in further study, you will often need to provide your training records and results (transcript). One of the main benefits of the USI is the ability to provide learners with easy access to their training records and results (transcript) throughout their life. You can access your USI account online from your computer, tablet or smart phone anytime. Fact sheets –available to download Student Information for the USI

It's free and easy to create your own USI and will only take a few minutes of your time. Alternatively, we can create your USI on your behalf. To do this we will need some additional identification information from you such as your driver's licence number.

Learners are advised that there are a number of unique circumstances where a person may be exempt from requiring a USI. These do not apply to the vast majority of learners in Australia. The USI Exemption Table is available from the USI website which explains these circumstances. Learners who exercise an exemption from submitting a USI should be aware that the results of the training will not be accessible through the Commonwealth and will not appear on any authenticated VET transcript prepared by the USI Registrar. Further details about the implications of being exempt can be obtained from the USI website.

YOUR SAFETY

Integral Skills is committed to providing you a safe environment in which to participate in training and assessment. We are aware under the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 of our responsibilities to maintain a safe environment.

The following guidelines are provided as a basis for safe practice in the training environment:

- Know and observe details of emergency response and evacuation plans;
- Do not undertake activities which may cause injury to self or others;
- Be responsible for your own actions;
- Smoking or vaping in designated areas only;
- Report all potential hazards, accidents and near misses to the RTO staff;
- No consumption of alcohol within training and assessment facilities or during the conduct of training and assessment;
- Keep training and assessment areas neat and tidy at all times;
- Seek assistance if you volunteer to lift items e.g. move furniture in a training area;
- Minimum clothing requirement while training (enclosed shoes, no singlets, appropriate to training being conducted), and
- Observe hygiene standards particularly in eating and bathroom areas.

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT

- Electrical equipment that is not working should be reported to RTO staff.
- Electrical work only be performed by appropriately licensed or trained personnel. Learners, trainers and assessors should not undertake any task related to fixing electrical equipment such as lighting or electrical training aids.

FIRE SAFETY

- Integral Skills will undertake to communicate the procedures involved in evacuation and the location of fire equipment to learners at each facility for each training and assessment event; and to users of the office at least twice each year.
- All users of a training and assessment facility need to be familiar with the location of all EXITS and fire extinguishers. Users will consult available maps to determine location.
- It is the user's responsibility to understand fire drill procedures displayed around the premises.
- Users are asked to attend any sessions on fire safety procedures and the use of fire safety devices.

FIRST AID

- Provision for first aid facilities are available where training is delivered.
- All accidents must be reported to staff.
- The accident and any aid administered must be recorded by staff involved, in the incident register.

LIFTING

- Learners, trainers and assessors are encouraged not to lift anything related to the training and assessment provided by Integral Skills unless they do so voluntarily and taking all responsibility for any injury caused.
- Never attempt to lift anything that is beyond your capacity.
- Always use correct lifting techniques such as bend the knees and keep the back straight when picking up items.
- If you have experienced back problems in the past do not attempt to lift heavy objects at all. Ask for assistance.

WORK & STUDY AREAS

- Always ensure that all work areas are clean and clear of clutter to avoid the danger of accident by tripping or falling over.
- Place all rubbish in the bins provided.
- Ensure bench spaces are left clean and tidy.
- Do not sit or climb on any desks or tables.

YOUR EQUITY

Integral Skills is committed to ensuring that the training and assessment environment is free from discrimination and harassment. All Integral Skills staff members (including contractors) are aware that discrimination and harassment will not be tolerated under any circumstances. In the event that discrimination and harassment is found to have occurred disciplinary action will be taken against any staff member in breach. Suspected criminal behaviour will be reported to police authorities immediately. Learners should expect fair and friendly behaviour from Integral Skills staff and we apply complaint handling procedures advocated by the Australian Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission (HREOC).

Learners who feel that they have been discriminated against or harassed should report this information to a staff member of Integral Skills that they feel they can trust. This will initiate our complaint handling procedure which will be fair and transparent protecting your rights as a complainant. Alternatively, if a learner wishes, they may report an instance of discrimination or harassment to an agency external to Integral Skills.

YOUR PRIVACY

Integral Skills takes the privacy of learners very seriously and complies with all legislative requirements. These include the Privacy Act 1988 and Australian Privacy Principles (effective from 12th March 2014).

Here's what you need to know:

- Integral Skills will retain personal information about you relating to your enrolment with us. This includes your personal details, your ethnicity and individual needs, your education background. We will also retain records of your training activity and are required to do this in accordance with the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011.
- Your personal information is retained within our hard copy filing system and our computer systems. Your information is collected via the enrolment form and through your completion of administrative related forms and based on your training outcomes. Hard copy files are secured in lockable filing cabinets which are monitored throughout the day and secured in the evening. Electronic data retained on our computer systems is protected via virus protection software and firewall protection. Our data is backed up continuously to our server which is secure.
- Integral Skills is required by the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 to securely retain your personal details for a period of 30 years from the date your enrolment has completed. The purpose of this is to enable your participation in accredited training to be recorded for future reference and to allow you to obtain a record of your outcome if required.
- In some cases we are required by law to make learner information available to Government agencies such as the National Centre for Vocational Education and Research or the Australian Skills Quality Authority. In all other cases Integral Skills will seek the written permission of the learner for such disclosure. Integral Skills will not disclose your information to any person or organisation unless we have written instructions from you to do so. If you require your records to be accessed by persons such as your parents, you need to authorise this access otherwise this access will be denied.
- You have the right to access information that Integral Skills is retaining that relates to you. Further instructions are provided on how to access records within the section titled "Access to your records".

- If you have concerns about how Integral Skills is managing your personal information, we encourage you to inform our staff and discuss your concerns. You are also encouraged to make a complaint directly to us using our internal complaint handling arrangements outlined in this handbook. Under the Privacy Act 1988 (Privacy Act) you also have the right to make a complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) about the handling of your personal information. You can find more information about making a privacy complaint at the website of the OAIC located at: <http://www.oaic.gov.au/privacy/privacy-complaints>.

NATIONAL VET DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

Under the Data Provision Requirements 2020, Integral Skills is required to collect personal information about you and to disclose that personal information to the National Centre for Vocational Education Research Ltd (NCVER).

Your personal information (including the personal information contained on this enrolment form), may be used or disclosed by Integral Skills for statistical, administrative, regulatory and research purposes. Integral Skills may disclose your personal information for these purposes to:

- Commonwealth and State or Territory government departments and authorised agencies; and
- NCVER.

Personal information that has been disclosed to NCVER may be used or disclosed by NCVER for the following purposes:

- populating authenticated VET transcripts;
- facilitating statistics and research relating to education, including surveys and data linkage;
- pre-populating RTO student enrolment forms;
- understanding how the VET market operates, for policy, workforce planning and consumer information; and
- administering VET, including program administration, regulation, monitoring and evaluation.

You may receive a student survey which may be administered by a government department or NCVER employee, agent or third-party contractor or other authorised agencies. Please note you may opt out of the survey at the time of being contacted.

NCVER will collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), the National VET Data Policy and all NCVER policies and protocols (including those published on NCVER's website at www.ncver.edu.au).

FEES PAYABLE

The initial fee payment must be paid at the time of enrolment, prior to commencing training or within specified timeframes from receiving an invoice from Integral Skills for account holders. Integral Skills may discontinue training if fees are not paid as required. For a full list of current fees and charges please request a copy of Integral Skills schedule of fees and charges or visit our website.

LEARNER CANCELLATION

Learners who cancel their enrolment part way through a training program must notify Integral Skills in writing via email or letter at the soonest opportunity. Learners who cancel their enrolment after a training program has commenced will not be entitled to a refund of fees. Learners are advised to consider alternative options such as requesting to suspend their enrolment and re-commencing in another scheduled training program where the training and/or program allows.

REPLACEMENT OF TEXT & TRAINING WORKBOOKS

Learners who require replacement of issued text or training workbooks may be liable for additional charges to cover the cost of replacement.

REFUNDS

Any participant who has enrolled for a course and withdraws by giving 2 working days' notice or less will not be entitled to a refund of fees.

Any participant who has enrolled for a course and withdraws by giving 3 to 4 working day's notice, is entitled to a refund of the original payment amount less 20%, as in normal circumstances we are unable to re-fill the position. This fee also covers administration and bank fees.

Any participant who has enrolled for a course and withdraws by giving 4 to 7 working day's notice, is entitled to a refund of the original payment amount less 10%, as in normal circumstances we are unable to re-fill the position. This fee also covers administration and bank fees.

Any participant who has enrolled for a course and withdraws by giving more than 7 working days' notice, will not be subject to any charges. The exception is if the payment has been made online via the website, in this instant you are entitled to a refund of the original payment less 5%, to cover administration and bank fees.

Where a participant has purchased a text or training workbooks and subsequently cancels, Integral Skills will not refund monies for the text.

PAYMENT METHOD

Integral Skills accepts payment for fees using:

- Credit Card

- Electronic Funds Transfer (account details available on request)
- Cheque (made payable to Integral Skills)
- Account (if you have one)
- Payment in cash.

SUBSTITUTIONS

Requests for substitutions are to be made with adequate notice provided that allows for all administrative actions to be conducted.

TRANSFERS

Requests for transfers to alternate programs can be arranged if Integral Skills is advised in writing with notice as per our cancellation time frames if there is availability on the selected program. One transfer will be accepted without charge, all subsequent transfers will attract an administration charge.

STATUTORY COOLING OFF PERIOD

The Standards for Registered Training Organisations require Integral Skills to inform persons considering enrolment of their right to a statutory cooling off period. A statutory cooling off period (which is 10 days) is a period of time provided to a consumer to allow them to withdraw from a consumer agreement, where that agreement was established through unsolicited marketing or sales tactics. These include tactic such as door-to-door sales and telemarketing. A statutory cooling off period allows a consumer to withdraw from a sales agreement within 10 days of having received a sale contract without penalty.

It must be noted that Integral Skills do not engage in unsolicited marketing or sales tactics and therefore a statutory cooling off period is not applicable to our learners who have enrolled into a program. For refund option in other circumstances, learners must refer to the above extract from our Fees and Refund policy.

OUR GUARANTEE TO CLIENTS

If Integral Skills cancels or ceases to provide training, Integral Skills must offer alternative dates or issue a full refund for any services not yet provided. The basis for determining “services not yet provided” is to be based on the units of competency completed by the learner and which can be issued in a statement of attainment at the time the service is ceased.

As an example: A learner enrolled in a course of 10 units of competency and paid $1,500.00 up front as the total course fee. The course was cancelled due to the trainer falling ill and the learner at that time had completed 4 of the 10 units. The learner’s enrolment would be finalised and the learner would receive a Statement of Attainment for the 4 completed units. The learner would also receive a refund to the value of the training/units not delivered.

CHANGES TO TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Integral Skills reserves the right to amend the conditions of the student's enrolment at any time. If amendments are made that effect the student's enrolment the student will be informed 7 days prior to changes taking effect. Students then have 28 days to submit an appeal from the date they were informed of the decision. Further information about appealing a decision is contained in the section relating to complaints and appeals handling.

This is not relevant to the majority of course offered as they are short course (Statement of Attainment) not a Qualification delivered over an extended period.

PROTECTION UNDER AUSTRALIAN CONSUMER LAW

As a student undertaking a vocational education and training course, you are protected under Australian Consumer Law and under State and Territory consumer protection laws. These protections include areas such as unfair contract terms, the consumer guarantees, to statutory a cooling-off period, and unscrupulous sales practices. You can find out more information about your rights as a consumer from the Australian Consumer Law website which includes a range of helpful guides relating to specific areas of protection. Please visit the following site for more information: Australian Consumer Law.

ACCESSING YOUR RECORDS

You are entitled to have access to your records. These records include your:

- Learner file,
- Learning and assessment record,
- Administrative records,
- AQF certificates including a reissuance of a statement of attainment or qualification which has been previously issued.

You may require these records to monitor you progress with training or simply to go back and confirm something in a previous training module. Whilst these records will be retained by Integral Skills, you are welcome to have access anytime just ask your trainer and it will be organised immediately.

You can access electronic records and reports from our learner management system, but only relating to you personally. You can request this access using the Learner Records Request Form. Access to requested records during a work day will be arranged as soon as possible and definitely within 24 hours. Learners should note that these records cannot be taken away unless a copy is requested.

In the case of accessing a reissuance of a previously issued Statement of Attainment or Qualification certificate, if you have lost or misplaced your AQF certificate you may obtain a reissued certificate from Integral Skills. To obtain this just contact our administration staff. The cost of $20.00 will apply for each hard copy issued AQF certificate with electronic copies at no charge. These monies must be paid in advance. Reissued AQF certificates will be an exact duplicate of the original with the exception of small wording at the bottom of the document which identifies the certificate as reissued. AQF certificates may only be collected in person or can be posted via registered post. A learner may also nominate another person to collect the certificate, however these persons must be notified to Integral Skills beforehand and the person must provide photo ID to validate their identity.

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

Integral Skills is committed to the continuous improvement of our training and assessment services, learner services and management systems. Central to this commitment is our approach to continuous improvement and the procedures we apply to achieve systematic and sustained improvement.

SUGGESTING IMPROVEMENTS

The primary method of reporting opportunities for improvement by learners is via the continuous improvement reporting procedure. This procedure allows any person to raise a Continuous Improvement Report for consideration. Often these reports will be generated after an opportunity for improvement has been identified by a staff member or learner. The Continuous Improvement Report template is available on request. Learners are encouraged to provide feedback to Integral Skills so we can improve our services in the future. Opportunities for improvement can also be conveyed verbally or email to the trainer or staff.

LEARNER SATISFACTION SURVEY

At the completion of your training program, you will be issued with a Learner Satisfaction Survey. This is a nationally consistent survey tool which is designed to collect feedback from learners about their experience with an RTO and in undertaking nationally recognised training. Your completion and return of this survey is important to Integral Skills for our ongoing improvement of services and to enable us to report this information to our registering authority. Your assistance in gathering this survey data is greatly appreciated.

ASSESSMENT

At Integral Skills, assessments are conducted using a combination of Written Knowledge Assessment, Research Tasks, Case Studies, Work Log Book, Supervisor Feedback and Workplace Observation.

The following provides a brief explanation of the primary assessment methods:

- Written Knowledge Assessment: The learner is required to provide a written response to a range of questions relating to required knowledge of the units of competency. These would generally be short answer response activities and may include other questioning methods including multiple-choice.

- Research Tasks: The learner is required to undertake research within their own workplace and the available reference material and provide a written response to each question. These assessment activities are usually short to medium answer response activities. The responses provided by the learner will largely be specific to their workplace.
- Case Study Response: The learner is required to provide a written response to a situation presented in a case study scenario. This will usually require the learner to consider carefully the situation presented, undertake some research to inform their response and then to propose their recommended actions.
- Workplace Log book: The learner is required to record details of their work activity completed during the work placement. These details are recorded against specified tasks which are predesigned for the learner to complete. This forms an important part of the assessment evidence as it often includes critical evidence that is otherwise difficult for the assessor to observe.
- Supervisor Feedback: The assessor will periodically engage with workplace supervisors to seek their feedback about the learner's performance. This can be undertaken over the phone or face to face. Feedback from a supervisor is recorded into the assessment record.
- Workplace Observation: The learner will be observed performing specific tasks in their day-to-day work activities. The assessor will attend the workplace and observe the learner performing tasks relevant to the units of competency being assessed. The learner will be briefed on these observation activities in events and is required to make arrangements to undertake these activities when the assessor is in attendance at the workplace.

RE-ASSESSMENT

Learners who are assessed as 'Not Yet Competent' are to be provided with detailed verbal and written feedback to assist them to identify the gaps in their knowledge and skills to be addressed through further training. These learners are to be provided with additional training and learning support to target their specific gaps in knowledge and/or skills and prepare them for additional assessment.

It is the policy of Integral Skills to provide two additional opportunities for re-training and re-assessment at no additional cost to the learner or employer. Learners who require additional training and re-assessment after they have exhausted their two additional opportunities will be required to undergo the course and training again paying full fees. It is understood that every situation is different and the Director will have the ultimate decision.

Learners requiring additional learning support are to be brought to the attention of Integral Skills management so the progress of the learner can be monitored closely and additional support services can be applied well before it becomes necessary for re-assessment. Where learners repeatedly do not demonstrate competence following significant learning and assessment support, a learner's enrolment may be completed and closed out.

ISSUING QUALIFICATIONS AND STATEMENTS OF ATTAINMENT

Integral Skills will issue all Australian Qualification Framework certification documentation (Qualifications or Statements of Attainment) to a student within 30 calendar days of the student being assessed as meeting the requirements of the training product if the training program in which the student is enrolled is complete. Please note however that Integral Skills is not obliged to issue a certificate to a completed student if:

- All agreed fees the student owes to Integral Skills have not been paid.
- The student has not provided a valid Unique Student Identifier.

Students should be aware that a:

- Qualification is the result of a student achieving the units of competency for a qualification outcome as specified in an endorsed training package or an accredited course. A qualification is a formal certification that a student has achieved learning outcomes as described in the AQF. Technically within the AQF a qualification is comprised of a testamur and a record of results. A testamur is the actual official certification document that confirms that a qualification has been awarded to an individual.
- Statement of Attainment is issued when the student has achieved one or more units of competency as a result of completing a course which included units of competency only or where the student achieved one or more units of competency as part of an enrolment in a qualification based course but the student did not achieve all of the units of competency to receive the full qualification.
- All Qualifications and Statement of attainments will be issued electronically to the email address provided. If a hard copy is required an additional administration fee will be payable.

LEARNER SUPPORT SERVICES

During your enrolment, Integral Skills will engage with you on a number of occasions. We do this through requesting you to complete enrolment documentation, discussions over the phone, enrolment interview (as required) and finally during your orientation. One of the important objectives of these engagements is to understand what support services you may need to fully participate in your study. You will be asked various questions about your support needs or your "individual needs". This is simply the term we use to define what your needs are and this enables us to organise the appropriate support services. Make sure you take the most of this opportunity and let us know if you need support.

If learner support is known to be required, by either employer or learner. Integral Skills is to be made aware of this prior to enrolment so appropriate support requirements can be discussed and arranged.

Whilst beginning the enrolment process (booking via website), the learner is prompted to identify any learning issues and contact Integral Skills prior to progressing.

WHAT SUPPORT IS AVAILABLE?

Integral Skills will use a combination of our own services and the services of referral agencies to either provide or refer you to the following support services:

- Language, Literacy and Numeracy Support.
- Studying and Learning Coaching.
- English as Second Language Tuition.
- Alternative Payment Plan.
- Counselling Support.
- Disability Access.
- Employment Services Referral.
- Verbal Assessments.

If you need support during your course, please approach and inform reception and you will be connected with the best person who can assist you. If the matter is sensitive and you do not feel comfortable discussing it with reception, simply inform reception that you would like to meet with the RTO Manager. It is our absolute priority to provide you the support needed to enable you to progress in your study and complete your chosen course. Integral Skills is committed to our student's welfare both during and after hours of study. Your designated learner support officer is

Anthony Southwell

RTO Systems Coordinator

P: 02 6362 2502

Email: TonySouthwell@integralskills.com.au

On the day of attending the course, if the learner has significant learning difficulties that limits the completion of the course, which impacts on the learning of others and has not been previously identified, training may be ceased and options provided.

LANGUAGE, LITERACY & NUMERACY SKILLS

Language, literacy and numeracy skills are critical to almost all areas of work. This is particularly true in many vocations where language, literacy and numeracy skills influence the performance of workplace tasks such as measuring, weighing and comprehending written work instructions.

To support this approach Integral Skills will:

- Assess a learner's language, literacy and numeracy skills during their enrolment to ensure they have adequate skills to complete the training;
- Support learners during their study with training and assessment materials and strategies that are easily understood and suitable to the level of the workplace skills being delivered;
- Provide clear information to learners about the details of the language, literacy and numeracy assistance available. Integral Skills generally recommend the LLN training courses provided by TAFE. These institutes have specialist teachers to support the learner's development.
- Refer learners to external language, literacy and numeracy support services that are beyond the support available within Integral Skills and where this level of support is assessed as necessary; and
- Negotiate an extension of time to complete training programs if necessary.

MAKING COMPLAINTS & APPEALS

Integral Skills is committed to providing a fair and transparent complaints and appeals process that includes access to an independent external body if required. To make a complaint or an appeal, you are requested to complete one of the following forms:

- Complaint Form
- Request for Appeal of a Decision

These forms are available via our website at the following address:

<https://www.integralskills.com.au/>

Once you have completed the required form you are requested to submit this to the RTO Manager either in hard copy or electronically via the following contact details:

Orange Facility & Head Office:

49 Leewood Drive, Orange NSW 2800
02 6362 2502

admin@integralskills.com.au

Mudgee Facility:

87 Lions Drive, Mudgee NSW 2850
02 6372 0183

mudgee@integralskills.com.au

WHAT IS A COMPLAINT?

A complaint is negative feedback about services or staff which has not been resolved locally. A complaint may be received by Integral Skills in any form and does not need to be formally documented by the complainant in order to be acted on. Complaints may be made by any person but are generally made by learners and/or employers.

WHAT IS AN APPEAL?

An appeal is an application by a learner for reconsideration of an unfavourable decision or finding during training and/or assessment. An appeal must be made in writing and specify the particulars of the decision or finding in dispute. Appeals must be submitted to Integral Skills within 28 days of the learner being informed of the decision or finding.

EARLY RESOLUTION OF COMPLAINTS & APPEALS

In all cases, issues that arise during training and assessment that are the source of frustration or are in dispute should be resolved at the time, as they occur between the persons involved, where possible. Sometimes, it will not be possible and in these cases you are encouraged to come forward and inform us of your concerns with the confidence that you will be treated fairly.

COMPLAINT AND APPEALS HANDLING

Integral Skills applies the following principles to its complaints and appeals handling:

- A complaint or appeal may be received in any form (written, verbal) although persons seeking to make a complaint are recommended to complete the complaint form or request for an appeal of a decision which are available on the Integral Skills website.
- A person who makes a complaint or an appeal must be provided a written acknowledgement as soon as possible and not later than 24 hours from the time the complaint or the appeal is received. The acknowledgement must inform the person that they will receive a written response within 14 days and explain the complaint/appeal handling process and the person's rights and obligations.
- There is no time limitation on a person who is seeking to make a complaint. An appeal however must be made within 28 days of the person being informed of the decision or finding of which they intend to appeal.

- Written records of all complaints / appeals are to be kept by Integral Skills including all details of lodgement, response and resolution. Integral Skills will maintain complaints / appeals register to be used to record the details of the complaint / appeal and to maintain a chronological journal of events during the handling process. Records relating to complaint / appeal handling are stored securely to prevent access to unauthorised personnel.
- A person making a complaint or seeking an appeal is to be provided an opportunity to formally present his or her case at no cost.
- Each person may be accompanied and/or assisted by a support person at any relevant meeting.
- Where a complaint or appeal is made about or involves allegations about another person, Integral Skills is obliged to inform this person about this complaint/appeal or allegation and provide them the opportunity to respond and present information in response to the issues raised. This may be achieved through direct meetings or meeting via an electronic means. Integral Skills will maintain a detailed record of these meetings in the form of a record of conversation. At all times information must be handled sensitively and treated in confidence. Persons involved in a dispute or complaint should be reminded to treat each other with respect and conduct themselves in a professional and courteous manner.
- The handling of a complaint / appeal is to commence within seven (7) working days of the lodgement of the complaint / appeal and all reasonable measures are taken to finalise the process as soon as practicable.
- The person making a complaint or seeking an appeal is to be provided a written response to the complaint / appeal, including details of the reasons for the outcome. A written response must be provided to the person within fourteen (14) days of the lodgement of the complaint / appeal.
- Complaints / appeals must be resolved to a final outcome within sixty (60) days of the complaint / appeal being initially received. Where Integral Skills Director considers that more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint / appeal, the CEO must inform the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal in writing, including reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required. As a benchmark, Integral Skills will attempt to resolve complaints / appeals as soon as possible. A timeframe to resolve a complaint / appeal within thirty (30) days is considered acceptable and in the best interest of Integral Skills and the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal. A person making a complaint or seeking an appeal should also be provided with regular updates to inform them of the progress of the complaint / appeal handling. Updates should be provided to the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal at a minimum of two (2) weekly intervals.
- Integral Skills shall maintain the enrolment of the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal during the handling process.

- Decisions or outcomes of the complaint / appeal handling process that find in the favour of the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal shall be implemented immediately.
- Complaints / appeals are to be handled in the strictest of confidence. No Integral Skills representative will disclose information to any person without the permission of Integral Skills RTO Manager. A decision to release information to third parties can only be made after the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal has given permission for this to occur. This permission should be given using the Information Release Form.
- Complaints / appeals are to be considered and handled to ensure the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are applied at every stage of the handling process. This means that the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal is entitled to be heard with access to all relevant information and with the right of reply. The person making a complaint or seeking an appeal is entitled to have their complaint heard by a person that is without bias and may not be affected by the decision. Finally, the decision must be made based on logical evidence and the decision-maker must take account of relevant considerations, must act for a proper purpose and must not take into account irrelevant considerations.
- Further guidance on principles of natural justice and procedural fairness can be accessed at the following link: Principles of Natural Justice and Procedural Fairness

INFORMING PERSONS AND RESPONDING TO ALLEGATIONS

Where a complaint involves one person making allegations about another person, it is a requirement for Integral Skills to hear both sides of the matter before making any judgements about how the complaint should be settled. A person who will be affected by a decision made by Integral Skills as a result of a complaint has the right to be fully informed of any allegations and to be provided adequate opportunity to be heard and respond. The person has the right to:

- Put forward arguments in their favour,
- Show cause why a proposed action should not be taken,
- Deny allegations,
- Call for evidence to disprove allegations and claims,
- Explain allegations or present an innocent explanation, and
- Provide mitigating circumstances (information aimed at reducing the severity, seriousness, of something).

Integral Skills also has an obligation to fully consider the substance of allegations and the response provided by parties before making a decision. Decisions must be communicated to the complainant and relevant persons subject of allegations in writing. This is to include advising these persons of their right to seek a third party review of decisions made by Integral Skills.

Where an allegation is made that involve alleged criminal or illegal activity and it is considered outside the scope and expertise of Integral Skills to investigate the matter, then in these circumstances Integral Skills reserve the right to report these allegations to law enforcement authorities. Persons related to the matter involving alleged criminal or illegal activity will be advised in writing if this course of action is being taken.

REVIEW BY AN INDEPENDENT THIRD PARTY

Integral Skills provides the opportunity for the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal who is not satisfied with the outcomes of the complaints and appeals handling process to seek a review by an independent person. Before a person seeks a review by an independent person, they are requested to first allow Integral Skills to fully consider the nature of the complaint or appeal and to fully respond to the person in writing. If after this has occurred, the person is not satisfied with the outcome, they can then seek a review by an independent person. To request a review by an independent person, the complainant or the person making an appeal should inform the RTO Manager of their request who will initiate the process with the Director.

In these circumstances the Integral Skills Director will advise of an appropriate party independent of Integral Skills to review the complaint (and its subsequent handling) and provide advice to Integral Skills in regards to the recommended outcomes. The independent third-party is required to respond with their recommendations within fourteen (14) working days of their review being requested.

Where the Integral Skills appoints or engages an appropriate independent person to review a complaint / appeal, the Integral Skills will meet the full cost to facilitate the independent review.

Following an independent review, advice received from the independent person is to be accepted by Integral Skills as final, advised to the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal in writing and implemented without prejudice.

Where a complaint is received by Integral Skills and the Director feels that they may be bias or there is a perception of bias, then the complaint is to be referred directly to an independent third-party for consideration and response as outlined above.

UNRESOLVED COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

Where the person making a complaint or seeking an appeal is not satisfied with the handling of the matter by Integral Skills, they have the opportunity for a body that is external to Integral Skills to review his or her complaint or appeal following the internal completion of complaint or appeals process.

Learners who are not satisfied with the process applied by Integral Skills may refer their matter to the following external agencies:

- In relation to consumer related issues, you may refer their complaint to the Office of Fair Trading.
- In relation to the delivery of training and assessment services, you may refer their complaint to the National Training Complaints hotline or phone number: 13 38 73.
- In relation to matters relating to privacy, you may refer their complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner via the following details: <https://www.oaic.gov.au> or call on 1300 363 992

WITHDRAWING FROM A COURSE

There are circumstances where a learner may finalise their enrolment early for personal or academic reasons. Where this is the case, the learner is requested to complete the form Application for Course Deferment / Transfer / Withdrawal. This provides the learner the opportunity to specify their reasons and select to indicate their preference to defer their enrolment, to transfer their enrolment to another course or to terminate their enrolment altogether. Where the enrolment is being deferred or terminated, learners will be issued a statement of attainment to recognise the outcomes they have achieved during their enrolment. A learner who defers and returns to complete a course will be eligible to recommence their training and receive a credit transfer for any completed units of competency. The Director will review these applications, where possible is to interview the learner to understand their circumstances and is to record their decision using the section provided on the application. Learners are to be informed of this decision in writing.

This will be on rare occasions due to predominately delivering short courses or units of competencies which by nature of the training exclude this process.

LEARNERS WHO ARE NOT CONTACTABLE OR NOT RESPONDING

Where a learner is not contactable or fails to respond to requests by the Integral Skills, the learner's enrolment may be terminated in absentia. This action may only be taken where Integral Skills has made every reasonable attempt to engage with the learner or contact the learner to seek their instructions about their intentions to continue with or complete the applicable course. Advice received from a learner via email or phone conversation communicating their request is to be accepted where the learner is not willing to complete an Application for Course Deferment / Transfer / Withdrawal. Email records and written records of phone conversations are to be retained on the learner's file as evidence of these expressed instructions from the learner.

Before a learner's enrolment can be terminated without their written or expressed consent the following protocol is to be followed:

- A minimum of three attempts (1 week apart) must be made using the last known contact details (email, phone and mail) to contact the learner and issue the learner with a warning letter notifying them of the intent to terminate the enrolment.
- Where the learner fails to respond, the learner's enrolment is to be terminated and the learner's record within the student management system is to be updated with the outcome of "withdrawn" entered into each unit of competency that has not been completed at the time.
- Any final AQF certificate to which the learner is entitled is to be sent registered mail to the learner's last known mailing address or emailed to last known email address. This should also be noted in the learner's enrolment record.
- The learner's record is to be archived in accordance with the Records Retention and Management Policy.

Applicable trainers are to be informed of the learner's enrolment termination and advised to inform the Office Manager if the learner makes contact.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING

In accordance with the requirements of the Standards for Registered Training Organisations, Integral Skills provides the opportunity for learners to apply to have prior learning recognised toward a qualification or units of competence for which they are enrolled.

WHAT IS RECOGNITION?

Recognition involves the assessment of previously unrecognised skills and knowledge that an individual has achieved outside the formal education and training system. Recognition assesses this unrecognised learning against the requirements of a unit of competence, in respect of both entry requirements and outcomes to be achieved. By removing the need for duplication of learning, recognition encourages an individual to continue upgrading their skills and knowledge through structured education and training towards formal qualifications and improved employment outcomes. This has benefits for the individual and industry. Most importantly, it should be noted that recognition is just another form of assessment.

RECOGNITION GUIDELINES

The following guidelines are to be followed when an application for recognition is received:

- Any learner is entitled to apply for recognition in a course or qualification in which they are currently enrolled.
- Learners may not apply for recognition for units of competence or a qualification which are not included in Integral Skills scope of registration.

- Whilst learners may apply for recognition at any time, they are encouraged to apply before commencing a training program. This will reduce unnecessary training and guide the learner down a more efficient path to competence.
- Learners who are currently enrolled in a training program are eligible to apply for recognition in that program at no additional charge.
- Assessment via recognition is to apply the principles of assessment and the rules of evidence.
- Recognition may only be awarded for whole units of competence.

FORMS OF EVIDENCE FOR RECOGNITION

Recognition acknowledges that workplace skills and knowledge may be gained through a variety of ways including both formal and informal learning or through work-based or life experience.

Like assessment, recognition is a process whereby evidence is collected and a judgement is made by an assessor or assessment team. The judgement is made on evidence provided by candidates of the skills and knowledge that they have previously learnt through work, study, life and other experiences, and that they are currently using. It also includes evidence to confirm a candidate's ability to adapt prior learning or current competence to the context of the intended workplace or industry.

Forms of evidence toward recognition may include:

- Work records,
- Records of workplace training,
- Assessments of current skills,
- Assessments of current knowledge,
- Third party reports from current and previous supervisors or managers,
- Evidence of relevant unpaid or volunteer experience,
- Examples of work products,
- Observation by an assessor in the workplace,
- Performance appraisal, or
- Duty statements.

Many of these forms of evidence would not be sufficient on their own. When combined together, with a number of evidence items, the candidate will start to provide a strong case for competence. Integral Skills reserves the right to require candidates to undertake practical assessment activities of skills and knowledge in order to satisfy itself of a candidate's current competence.

CREDIT TRANSFER

Credit Transfer is the recognition of learning achieved through formal education and training. Under the Standards for Registered Training Organisations, units of competency issued by any RTO are to be accepted and recognised by all other RTOs. Credit Transfer allows a learner to be issued a unit of competency based on successful completion of the unit which has been previously awarded.

EVIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

If you are seeking credit transfer you are required to present your statement of attainment or qualification with a record of results for examination to Integral Skills.

These documents will provide the detail of what units of competence you have been previously issued. You must provide satisfactory evidence that the statement of attainment or qualification is authentic, is yours and that it has been issued by an Australian RTO. Statements of attainment or qualifications should be in the correct format as outlined in the Australian Qualifications Framework. Integral Skills will also verify these with the issuing RTO prior to acceptance as true and correct.

CREDIT TRANSFER GUIDELINES

The following guidelines are to be followed in relation to credit transfer:

- Any learner is entitled to apply for credit transfer in a course or qualification in which they are currently enrolled.
- Learners may not apply for credit transfer for units of competence or qualification which are not included in Integral Skills scope of registration.
- Whilst learners may apply for credit transfer at any time, they are encouraged to apply before commencing a training program. This will reduce unnecessary training and guide the learner down a more efficient path to competence.
- The learner does not incur any fees for credit transfer.
- Credit transfer may only be awarded for whole units of competence. Where a mapping guide identifies a partial credit, this will not be considered for credit transfer and applicants will be advised to seek other forms of recognition.

LEGISLATIVE AND REGULATORY RESPONSIBILITIES

Integral Skills is required to operate in accordance with the law. This means we comply with the requirements of legislative and regulatory requirements. They also represent obligations to you as a learner whilst training with Integral Skills.

During your day-to-day work and when participating in training, you will need to be aware of the relevant legislation that may impact on your conduct and behaviour.

Copies of State and Federal legislation can be found on the Internet at NSW Legislation (State) and www.comlaw.gov.au (Federal).

The following is a high level description of the legislation that will generally apply to your day-to-day work and training.

WORK HEALTH AND SAFETY ACT 2011

The main object of this Act is to provide for a balanced and nationally consistent framework to secure the health and safety of workers and workplaces. The WHS Act protects workers and other persons against harm to their health, safety and welfare through the elimination or minimisation of risks arising from work or from types of substances or plant.

The WHS Act covers workers by providing a nationally uniform work health and safety laws. This includes employees, contractors, sub-contractors, outworkers, trainees, work experience learners, volunteers and employers who perform work.

The WHS Act also provides protection for the general public so that their health and safety is not placed at risk by work activities.

Section 29 of the WHS Act requires that any person at a workplace, including customers and visitors, must take reasonable care of their own health and safety and that of others who may be affected by their actions or omissions.

They must also cooperate with any actions taken by the person conducting business or undertaking to comply with the WHS Act and WHS Regulation.

PRIVACY ACT 1988

The Privacy Act is supported by the Australian Privacy Principles which came into effect on 12th March 2014. The object of Australian Privacy Principles is to ensure businesses and government agencies manage personal information in an open and transparent way.

Review the section within this handbook that relates to privacy protection. It provides you with information about:

- The kinds of personal information that the entity collects and holds;
- How the entity collects and holds personal information;
- The purposes for which the entity collects, holds, uses and discloses personal information;
- How an individual may access personal information about the individual that is held by the entity and seek the correction of such information;
- How an individual may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how the entity will deal with such a complaint; and
- Whether the entity is likely to disclose personal information to overseas recipients.

DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION ACT 1992

Sect 5 - Disability Discrimination

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a person (discriminator) discriminates against another person (aggrieved person) on the grounds of a disability of the aggrieved person if, because of the aggrieved person's disability, the discriminator treats or proposes to treat the aggrieved person less favourably than, in circumstances that are the same or are not materially different, the discriminator treats or would treat a person without the disability.

For the purposes of subsection (1), circumstances in which a person treats or would treat another person with a disability are not materially different because of the fact that different accommodation or services may be required by the person with a disability.

SEX DISCRIMINATION ACT 1984

The objects of this Act are:

- To give effect to certain provisions of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women; and
- To eliminate, so far as is possible, discrimination against persons on the ground of sex, marital status, pregnancy or potential pregnancy in the areas of work, accommodation, education, the provision of goods, facilities and services, the disposal of land, the activities of clubs and the administration of Commonwealth laws and programs; and
- To eliminate, so far as possible, discrimination involving dismissal of employees on the ground of family responsibilities; and

- To eliminate, so far as is possible, discrimination involving sexual harassment in the workplace, in educational institutions and in other areas of public activity; and
- To promote recognition and acceptance within the community of the principle of the equality of men and women.

AGE DISCRIMINATION ACT 2004

The objects of this Act are:

- To eliminate, as far as possible, discrimination against persons on the ground of age in the areas of work, education, access to premises, the provision of goods, services and facilities, accommodation, the disposal of land, the administration of Commonwealth laws and programs and requests for information; and
- To ensure, as far as practicable, that everyone has the same rights to equality before the law, regardless of age, as the rest of the community; and
- To allow appropriate benefits and other assistance to be given to people of a certain age, particularly younger and older persons, in recognition of their particular circumstances; and
- To promote recognition and acceptance within the community of the principle that people of all ages have the same fundamental rights; and
- To respond to demographic change by:
 - Removing barriers to older people participating in society, particularly in the workforce; and
 - Changing negative stereotypes about older people.

RACIAL DISCRIMINATION ACT 1975

This Act gives effect to Australia's obligations under the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination. Its major objectives are to:

- Promote equality before the law for all persons, regardless of their race, colour or national or ethnic origin, and
- Make discrimination against people on the basis of their race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin unlawful.

COPYRIGHT ACT 1968

Copyright is a type of property that is founded on a person's creative skill and labour. It is designed to prevent the unauthorised use by others of a work, that is, the original form in which an idea or information has been expressed by the creator.

Copyright is not a tangible thing. It is made up of a bundle of exclusive economic rights to do certain acts with an original work or other copyright subject-matter. These rights include the right to copy, publish, communicate (eg. broadcast, make available online) and publicly perform the copyright material.

There is no general exception that allows a work to be reproduced without infringing copyright. Where a part of a work is copied, the issue is whether a substantial part of that work has been reproduced and thus an infringement has occurred. However, there is a 10% rule which applies in relation to fair dealing copying for the purposes of research or study. A reasonable portion of a work may be copied for that purpose, and a reasonable portion is deemed to be 10% of a book of more than 10 pages or 10% of the words of a work in electronic form.

FAIR WORK ACT 2009

The main objectives of this Act are to provide a balanced framework for cooperative and productive workplace relations that promote national economic prosperity and social inclusion for all Australians by:

- Providing workplace relations laws that are fair to working Australians, are flexible for businesses, promote productivity and economic growth for Australia's future economic prosperity and take into account Australia's international labour obligations;
- Ensuring a guaranteed safety net of fair, relevant and enforceable minimum terms and conditions through the National Employment Standards, modern awards and national minimum wage orders;
- Enabling fairness and representation at work and the prevention of discrimination by recognising the right to freedom of association and the right to be represented, protecting against unfair treatment and discrimination, providing accessible and effective procedures to resolve grievances and disputes and providing effective compliance mechanisms.

NATIONAL VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING REGULATOR ACT 2011

This legislation provides that basis for the regulation of Registered Training Organisations in Australia. The legislation provides the basis for the establishment of the National VET Regulator who are the registration authority for RTOs. A core component of this legislation is that it defines the condition for the registration of an RTO which include:

- Compliance with the VET Quality Framework.

- Satisfying Fit and Proper Person Requirements.
- Satisfying the Financial Viability Risk Assessment Requirements.
- Notifying National VET Regulator of important changes.
- Cooperating with National VET Regulator.
- Compliance with directions given by the National VET Regulator.
